Epilepsy and Seizure Response Online Training for EMS Personnel

The online Epilepsy and Seizure Response Training for EMS Personnel is about 60 minutes in length. The program saves your progress automatically so you can break up the time if you need to. The training highlights a variety of seizures associated with epilepsy, seizures with other potential causes, appropriate on-scene EMS response and issues to consider when determining whether further medical care is warranted. Appropriate EMS response is important to the health and safety of the estimated 3 million Americans subject to seizures caused by epilepsy.
