

Diagnostic support
you can count on.
Because every woman
counts on you.

Practicing Evidence-Based Medicine in Managing STIs

In this presentation we will address the public health concern of sexually transmitted infections (STIs) and how Universal Screening can improve patient care through established screening guidelines. Symptomatic STI testing and management for Trichomoniasis will be discussed as well as testing and treatment recommendations for Mycoplasma genitalium.

REGISTER
HERE

Live Event

Tuesday, May 3, 2022
6:30pm
Tony's of Cincinnati

Jamie Shutter, MD

Dr. Jamie Shutter is the Senior VP of Lab Development for Unified Women's Healthcare.

- Medical degree from Upstate Medical University in Syracuse, NY
- Clinical internship in OBGYN at the Johns Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore, MD
- Residency in Anatomic Pathology at the Columbia College of Physicians and Surgeons in New York City, NY
- Fellowship in Gynecological and Breast Pathology at the University of Virginia in Charlottesville, VA
- Associate Professor of Pathology at the East Carolina University

Registration

RSVP Link:

<https://cvent.me/mMvwmZ>

Use the link above to register and RSVP for the event.

Event Address

12110 Montgomery Rd
Cincinnati, OH 45249

Additional Notes

For any additional questions, please contact Sarah DuRant at (912) 659-3320.